

Greetings!

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Philippine Association of Functional Jaw Orthopedics (PAFJO-TMJ Inc.), the 22nd affiliate to the Philippine Dental Association, we are very pleased to announce that the 4th Asian Academic Congress for TMJ shall be held in the Philippines on November 16 to 18, 2015 at SOLAIRE RESORT & CASINO, 1 Asean Avenue Entertainment City Paranaque City 1701 Manila, Philippines.

This event shall highlight the latest methodology in diagnosing predictable treatment protocol in temporomandibular joint disorder. Key speakers noted in their field of expertise on TMJ from around the globe shall participate in this momentous event. China, Japan, Korea and the Philippines are the countries that are spearheading this Asian Congress. Delegates from neighboring South East Asian nations are anticipated to join this congress. Other countries from Europe, North America and Australia are expected also to join and contribute in the latest methodology.

Temporomandibular Joint Disorder (TMJD) which links our common objective in the treatment of orofacial pain shall be systematically explored with the aim of establishing a standard predictable treatment protocol approach not only on diagnosing but pinpointing the earliest possible signs of the disorder.

TMJD, a global concern will enable us to share clinical experiences and comprehend the interrelationship of TMD with occlusion, airway, orofacial pain and even emotional issues in providing a holistic management approach for our patients.

Due to the complexity and the emerging high prevalence of TMD, we are earnestly encouraging other neighboring countries to join and participate with us in the collaboration of resolving the multifaceted of TMD.

We will have a fellowship night on the 17th of November to know each other professionally, by exchanging views to lead us on treating the afflicted individual and extending our hands to know the right path in mastering the science of TMD.

Looking forward to see you all in the acquisition of skill from this very significant event, on the forthcoming 4th Asian Academic Congress for Temporomandibular Joint in the Philippines.

Warmest Regards,
Dr. Herminia P. Chavez
Congress Chairman of the 4th Asian Academic Congress for TMJ
